DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF'S FEBRUARY 11 MOTION

Defendants Ethicon, Inc. and Johnson & Johnson submit this response to Plaintiff Dawna Mallow's handwritten motion filed on February 11, 2022. (Doc. 124.)

To the extent Plaintiff is requesting a reasonable extension to respond to Defendants' Supplemental Motion for Summary Judgment on the Statute of Limitations (Doc. 121), Defendants do not oppose and propose a two-week extension from February 11, the original deadline to respond, (see Doc. 123 at 4), to February 25, 2022.

A longer extension would not be reasonable because: (1) Plaintiff has already been granted an extended response deadline to Defendants' summary judgment motion, (see Doc. 120 at 1); (2) Plaintiff has already had an opportunity to seek legal counsel to assist her on this case since October 28, 2020, (see Order Granting Plaintiff's Counsel's Motion to Withdraw as Attorney of Record, Doc. 117); and (3) even more leeway on this responsive deadline may further delay Plaintiff's response to Defendants' outstanding requests for her authorization forms and could impact their ability to conduct the fact discovery needed to timely serve expert reports, (see Scheduling Order, Doc. 115 at 2).

To the extent Plaintiff is requesting an extension to respond to Defendants' January 6 Motion for Leave (Doc. 118) or a reconsideration of the Court's January 7 Order granting Defendants' Motion for Leave (Doc. 119), Defendants oppose because Plaintiff's motion is long overdue and does not meet the criteria for granting extensions or relief from judgments under any rules of procedure.

While Plaintiff is entitled to have the form of her pleadings construed liberally, she must still adhere to the same rules, requirements, and timelines as any other litigant. See Garrett v. Selby Connor Maddux & Janer, 425 F.3d 836, 840 (10th Cir. 2005) (holding a pro se plaintiff must still "follow the same rules of procedure that govern other litigants").

Dated: February 16, 2022

Respectfully submitted,
